

Ola Adams - 2007 Football Mention

Football Falls Just Short at #27 Tiffin (8/25/07)

Tiffin, OH- Flooding has occurred all week long in Tiffin, OH, but the skies opened up and college football has begun. The Mountain Lions have traveled to face the #27 Tiffin Dragons. Tiffin University would prove to be just a little too much slipping by the Mountain Lions 23-16.

On the Defense, senior Tank Tunstalle lead the way with 12 solo tackles, and 19 tackles in the game. 4 of those tackles were for a loss. Also, senior captain Ola Adams had a 5.5 tackles, a fumble recovery, and a pass break-up. Zach Boyd continues to be an elite punter for the Mountain Lions as he had 7 punts with a 40.1 yard average.

Mountain Lion Football Loses in Tough Battle with UVA-Wise (9/8/07)

Athens, WV- Concord University's Mountain Lion Football team opened their home season with the first ever night game competing against the Univ. of Virginia-Wise at the June O. Shott field. The UVA-Wise Cavaliers pulled off a very exciting game as they defeated the Mountain Lions 35-28.

Ola Adams lead the way on defense as he ended the night with 12 tackles, with Tank Tunstalle right behind him with 11. Joey Thomas add 9 tackles along with a forced and recovered fumble. Chris Callis ended with 5 tackles and an interception.

Concord Loses Heartbreaker to West Virginia Wesleyan (9/22/07)

Athens, WV- Concord University Mountain Lion football hosted West Virginia Wesleyan on a perfect Saturday night in Athens, WV. In a game that could be considered one of the most exciting games to be played at Callaghan Stadium, the Mountain Lions fell short to the Bobcats, losing 29-21.

On the defensive side of the ball, Tank Tunstalle returned after an ankle injury and was all over the field. Tunstalle finished the game with an amazing 17 tackles and one tackle for loss. Ola Adams turned in 6 tackles. Aaron Lowe also finished with 6 tackles, 2 tackles for loss, a sack, and 4 quarterback hurries.

Concord Fights Hard in Tough Loss to Shepherd (10/13/07)

Athens, WV- Concord football hosted #18 ranked Shepherd University for their first home afternoon game. Concord fought well into the 4th quarter against the Rams as they were down 20-17 after the 3rd. The Rams put up 21 points in the 4th quarter, making the final score 41-17.

The Concord defense was lead by the team of Tank Tunstalle, Ola Adams and Joe Thomas. Tunstalle, who is 7th in the nation in tackling, ended the game with 20 tackles and one for a loss. Adams added 16 tackles and 2 for a loss, and Thomas had 15 tackles and 3 for a loss.

Seton Hill Defeats Concord (10/25/07)

Athens, WV- After three days of rain in Athens the sun popped out and stayed out making a gorgeous afternoon for a college football game. However, the game went in favor of the Seton Hill Griffins as they defeated Concord 27-3.

On defense, Ola Adams led the way for Concord with 11 tackles, a forced fumble, and a pass break-up. Tony Keiling Jr. added 10 tackles 4 of which for a loss.

Concord Football Places Three on the First-Team All-Conference List (11/13/07)

Ola Adams led Concord's defense as he was First Team All-Conference for the second straight year

Princeton, WV- (Story by:Will Prewitt) Concord University's Football Team placed one offensive, one defensive, and one special teams players on the First-Team All-Conference List. Those players are Dustin Greenwood, Ola Adams, and Zach Boyd. Ola was a first team All-Conference selection from a year ago. Tank Tunstalle made second team All-Conference. While Joe Black, Issac Quiroz, Dan Stone, and Joe Thomas were all honorable mention All-Conference. The complete list is as follows:

1st Team Defense:

DB-Ola Adams (Concord, Sr., 6-1, 190, Reston, VA, 96 tackles, 5 PBU)

Student Athletes of the Week (11/11/07)

Ola Adams

6-1 200 Fort Washington, MD / South Lakes High School

Athlete of the Week Highlights:

Ola Adams in his final game as a Mountain Lion led the defense against Fairmont State. Ola had 11 tackles while having two stops for a loss.